Background & Members

Founded in 2000, MRSS is a driving force for communication, collaboration and ethical standards amongst the research industry in Singapore.

Membership, MRS Singapore now boasts 36 corporate company memberships, comprising of 206 people, as well as 42 individual members who all work within the Market Research industry in Singapore.

Elected executive board of 10 volunteers from a range of research backgrounds, led by Melanie Ng (Ipsos) as the MRSS President.

As a business and discipline, market research has been around for a long time in Singapore. It was only recently, however, that the Market Research Society Singapore was established.

MRSS Objectives

- ◆ To upgrade the research profession by promoting and ensuring high standards among its members in the conduct of marketing and opinion research through generally accepted research methodologies.
- ◆ To promote public understanding and appreciation of the nature and value of market research as a management tool.
- ◆ To adopt a Code of Ethics for members and to ensure observance of the Code's provisions.
- ◆ To foster fellowship among practitioners, respect each other's professionalism and recognise that trade secrets are to be respected.
- ◆ To serve as a focal point for the exchange of information and ideas.
- ◆ To encourage the development of new techniques and methodologies in marketing and/or opinion research.
